SUMMARY

Commentary

Most noteworthy Matrix indicator last week was the red 3's. You should expect a top or the beginnings of a decline. Adding to the red 3's was the Venus square Uranus aspect on Friday. This is considered a Bearish aspect, and making it even more Bearish is the fact it was the only planetary aspect forming an exact aspect for the entire week.

NOAA forecasts seem to be back online. Tuesday was a 72 which is extremely Bearish. Due to their problems after the CloudShare disaster, I was leery to put any trust into such high numbers.

Algo Forecasts

In the Adjusted charts I have moved the forecast cycle forwards or backwards up to 7 days to get the best between the forecast and the actual price.
